Welcome back Trojan Nation students and parents! We are so excited to have everyone returning in-person for the 2021-2022 school year! Throughout the last year, students, staff, and families near and far have faced varying degrees of challenges dating back to March 2020.

PBS LearningMedia | Teaching Resources For Students and Teachers

Inspire your students with thousands of free teaching resources including videos, lesson plans, and games aligned to state and national standards.

Grouping Students Who Struggle With Reading | Reading Rockets

Teachers can ask students to provide summaries of the main points of a presentation through a discussion or after it is reviewed, and a student summary allows the teacher to determine whether students understand the critical features.

BOCES - Pursuing Excellence

AP Macroeconomics Course - AP Central | College Board

Course Overview. AP Macroeconomics is an introductory college-level macroeconomics course. Students cultivate their understanding of economic ideas and concepts by engaging in critical thinking practices, such as analyzing data, formulating and testing explanations, and evaluating economic performance.

Top Scholarships Available For Students

Teacher's In-Depth Content Knowledge | InTime

QUT - Education

QUT education students immersed in Country and Indigenous language. QUT students are forging strong connections with the languages and cultures of the indigenous people of Australia, and Country and Indigenous language and culture a key focus ahead of starting their professional teaching careers, says education researcher Grace O'Brien.

Aegis - international students

Our purpose is to safeguard the welfare of international students studying at schools, colleges and universities in the UK. We provide safe, friendly and caring homes for students in the UK. We aim to protect the international student experience worldwide, and ensure students have the best possible experience.

Teacher Job Description - Betterteam

A teacher is responsible for preparing lesson plans and educating students at all levels. Their duties include assigning homework, grading tests, and documenting progress. Teachers must be able to interact in a caring and supportive manner, with students and with parents.

Teaching Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders

Portland Place School | Independent School, Central London

At Portland Place School we focus on best preparing our students for any path they wish to take, inclusive of A-levels, University entrance, Foundation courses and apprenticeships. More importantly, our students come to us with a wide range of needs and we are proud to be part of the Richmond Park School community. David Bradbury, Headmaster

Preparing a Dynamic Lesson Plan in Education

Exceptional Students Preparing Teachers For The 21st Century

Exceptional Student Education - Orange County Public Schools

With the diverse array of student abilities, it is almost certain that teachers will have an opportunity to work with students with exceptional abilities each year. Though labeled “exceptional,” these exceptional abilities range from mild, moderate, and severe to profound. Exceptional students require teachers who are creative, innovative, and experienced in working with students who have diverse learning abilities.

A Mindful Learning Environment is Essential

In this final installment of our series on creating a mindful learning environment, we will explore the role of the teacher in fostering mindfulness in the classroom. We will discuss the importance of the teacher as a role model and facilitator, the benefits of mindfulness for students, and strategies for incorporating mindfulness into daily practice.

Exceptional Students Preparing Teachers For The 21st Century

Sacred Texts contains the web's largest collection of free books about religion, mythology, folklore and the esoteric in general.